THE VARSITY.

St. Joe 33; Goodland 29.

On the afternoon of Jan. 31st the Varsity accompanied by about twenty rooters took the Auto route to Goodland to play the return game with the team of that place. From start to finish it was fast and furious, the game being characterized by roughness. McArdle was the star landing nine field baskets, but was ably assisted by the other members of the quintette.

Owing to the fact that the Delphi team broke up, the game scheduled to be played here with them last Friday evening was called off.

Senior League.

II. Latins vs. Seniors.

Jan. 22. — The gray looks of the Seniors were clipped by the II. Latins to the tune of 25 to 18. These little fellows were in their best form and at no time were they hard pressed for the lead obtained at the beginning of the game. Lambert and Beckman with their shooting and Malay with his fine guarding featured the game.

II. Com. vs. III. Latins.

Jan. 23. — It was the Latins ability to connect with the rim that won them the game. The Commercials played in grand style, and held the ball in possession most of the time but failed to make but few baskets out of their many chances. Get over to the Gym practice shooting and the mighty will have to bow their heads with such pass-work as was displayed in to-days game.

III. Com. 41; II. Com. 20.

Jan. 25. — The II. Commercials lacked that spirit portrayed in their last game. They failed to exert themselves and to this they must attribute the loss. The III. Commercials were in the game heart and soul and deserve much credit for the success and furtherance of the league. Whitcomb starred with his long shots.

III. Latins 13; Seniors 14.

Jan. 27. — The Seniors can well be proud of this victory, being the first to bow the heads of the strong III. Latins in defeat. The game was fast and exciting throughout and neither gave up till the final sound of the whistle. This victory gave much hope to the other teams and helped to make the pennant struggle much keener. Daniels with his shooting saved the day for the Seniors.

III. Com. vs. II. Com.

Feb. 3. — The II. Commercial came out to meet their old victors in what seemed to be a determination to win but they soon showed that the downcast spirit produced by former defeats had a strong hold. Don't think of the past only in so far as it goads you on to retrieve your former prestige. The III. Commercial played well throughout and raised their standing considerably by making 33 points to their unlucky opponents 13.

Seniors 12; II. Latin 15.

This game illustrated the truth of old saying "Everything comes to those who try." Although the Seniors can boast of good material they fail to play with that energy necessary to win. The II. Latins at first were considered a weak team but through dilligent practice they have pass-work and shooting that is marvelous. The first half stood 7 to 0 in favor of the young lads. In the second half Malay put some life and spirit into his squad and succeeded in changing the 0 to 12 but the lead that the II. Latins had secured could not be overcome. The victors will probably make some of the other teams tremble before the final game is played this season.

Juniors.

Imperials vs. — Blue-Bells.

Jan. 18. In an exciting and well played game the Blue-Bells acknowledged defeat to the Imperials, the count resulting 18 to 15. Close guarding by both teams featured the game.

Cardinals vs. -- Laurels.

Jan. 24. The inability of the Laurels to excel the Cardinals either in pass work or basket shooting resulted in the score of 23 to 5. Yet the Laurels guards deserves mention for preventing the Cardinals from rolling baskets as ease as they generally do.

Blue-Bells 9 vs.— Imperials 20.

Jan. 27. The cleverness of the Imperials was clearly manifested when they overcome the Blue-Bells in spite of the latters attempt to raise their percent. Maloney the strong defendant of the Impeirals shot baskets at ease.

Laurels 11 Blue-Bells 8.

Feb. 3. The Laurels defeated the Blue-Bells in a fast game. The close guarding of both teams was a feature. It is such playing as this that makes it interesting for the spectators.

The Varsity Spirit.

The howling winds are fiercely storming

At the corners of the spacious Gym;
The wilder shouts are well informing
That Cap. Mac can find the pesky rim.

The snow comes down, all white veneer-
ing,

The red roof and vale and sandy hill;
Eorgotten is the jealous sneering,
For spry Beckie shoots fieldgoals at will.

Who heeds the wintry blast's delaying
On the frozen lea and leaden sky?
Right loyal ev'ry rooter's staying,
And slim Deery scores in passing by.

On the center of the floor it's hot;
The sphere, like molten shot, is flying;
But the foeman's forward knows it not.
Big Pat awaits no Circle's trying.

The wee guard infests the foe's domain;
The ball presages dangers lurking;
To capture it proves effort vain,
Sly Pete has jumped ten yards, not shirking.

And then Gus and John are in relay;
The rooter Shields no somber doubting;
It is Reed's sure word none dares gain-
say,

While play and cheer are foeman routing.

JUNIORS.

Blue-Bells 10 Cardinals 18.

Feb. 1. The Cardinals again successfully defended their thousand per cent when they defeated
the Blue-Bells 18 to 10.

Imperials 30 Laurels 7.

Feb. 4. The Imperials complet-ly outclassed their opponents, having little trouble to roll in the ball. The Imperials have several stars that will make a showing in the Senior League and Varsity teams in later years.

“Shorty” Horan is engaged in preparing an essay, entitled “St. Patrick and His Native Land” which he will deliver on the evening of March the 17.

No less enduring than the Spartan youths of old who suffered the greatest bodily tortures in order to fit themselves for the duty of citizenship as conceived
by their elders, is Henry Contant, the renowned Athlete and budding Pugilist of St. Joe. Mr.
Contant has had several practice bouts with Carl Stick and Bert Teetley and is now subjecting himself to some severe measures at the hands of his trainers but not even a murmur has passed his lips. With a few more months of such preliminary work, the Ft.
Wayne boy can step into the ring “the white man's hope” the worthy successor to Jim Jeffries of old.

George Aman is now helping Jack Pincsak in his important work on muscleless men. Mr.
Aman has had the good fortune
of seeing a man without muscles, so the two gentlemen are well informed on the subject. Both have spent large sums of money in searching for information; Jack gave five cents to see the man while George got hoodooed out of a dime.

Someone asked Koisor, who was stranded on the island, why he did not swim to shore.

“Swim?” said Koisor, “don't you know that all students are strictly forbidden to swim in the lake.”
